Transfer on arrival to the Black Rock River Lodge for 3 nights. The unique eco-lodge is nestled in the rainforest above the Macal River in the Mayan Mountains of Belize and the stunning surroundings offer abundant opportunities for exploration and adventure. Whether canoeing down the pristine Macal River, horseback riding to the Flour Camp caves or hiking up the various Canyon trails, the abundant diversity of the local flora and fauna is inspiring. Other activities include tubing, bird-watching, mountain biking, swimming and night hiking.

The Lodge has 13 cabins which boast stunning views of Black Rock Canyon, the Macal River and the surrounding rainforest and wildlife. An inviting hammock is provided to enjoy the spectacular surroundings in total relaxation. The cabins are airy one-room structures built to take advantage of the fresh mountain breezes. Fully screened windows and high pitched roof lines create a bright and refreshing rainforest home for our guests. All cabins have en-suite bathrooms and closet areas. Simply decorated, the cabins display artwork created by local artisans and craftspeople.

Cayo District

Days at leisure. You may decide to hike to the peak of the challenging Summit Trail to catch a glimpse of the sun as it rises over the Mountain Pine Ridge. On your way back down the trail you'll spot many of the 200+ species of birds which call this area home. In the afternoon you could take it easy and cool off on a leisurely tube ride down the river, admiring the giant Garobo Iguanas along the way. Another day, you may opt to pack a special picnic lunch and explore the unexcavated Mayan ruin of Tipu by horseback from the Lodge. After dinner, why not join a Night Hike and catch glimpses of all sorts of creatures with your night vision goggles, learning about the rainforest and its inhabitants from one of our experienced guides.

Road transfer to Belize City airport to meet a shared lodge transfer to the Lamanai Outpost Lodge for 2 nights. Located 3 hours from Belize City, Lamanai is situated on the banks of Lamanai Lagoon and just yards from the famous Lamanai Archaeology Site. Your transfer to the lodge is normally by a tranquil river boat ride where you can enjoy viewing the local wildlife en route. The lodge offers first class accommodation in 18 cabanas which are rustic yet comfortable. Each cabana has a palm thatched roof, en suite bathroom, ceiling fan, 24 hour electricity and a verandah overlooking the tropical gardens and the lagoon. The lodge also has a restaurant and bar.

Sit on the deck, with its sweeping view of the lagoon and enjoy a cool rum punch as you contemplate your many options from the lodge. You can visit the ancient Mayan temples, take a nature trek, canoe or kayak on the lagoon, do river trips and birding tours by boat or on foot. This is one of the best birding locations in Belize as the lodge is in the midst of five distinct habitats which are home to over 300 species.
